A Sincere Welcome!

The Governing Body, Staff, pupils and parents welcome you – in anticipation – as part of the Christian Private School Malmesbury family.

Everyone who interacts with our school is important to us. We see the school as an extension of your home and are thus very excited about your link with our school.

We want to ensure that primary school days will be remembered with sincere pride.

CPM-greetings

Willie Taylor

Principal

History of CPM

The possibility of starting a private school in Malmesbury was being investigated by individuals as early as 1996, as there was concern that large classes in the government schools hampered good teaching. On 19 January 1999, the Christian Private School Malmesbury opened its doors, boasting nine learners and three teachers. We are thankful to report that we are still growing in learners every year.

The new teaching dispensation has indeed set new challenges to our community and it is with sincere gratitude that we affirm that the need for alternative education options continues to grow and that our school is going from strength to strength. In 2005, the school expanded with the extension of a Grade R class and in 2011, the playschool Jelly Tots, opened its doors for the 3 – 5 year olds.

Today we are proud to have about 236 learners and 22 teachers at the school. Willie Taylor is our current principal.
